The same two participants may enter either class a second time providing they perform in the opposite medium, eg: A plays piano and B sings then A sings and B plays piano. They MAY enter any Lieder Class with different partners providing each participant performs ONLY ONCE on piano and ONCE as the vocalist. NOTE: In this class only, the pianist is encouraged to use the Music. This will enhance the performance and will NOT negatively affect adjudication.

10. A participant may compete only once in each class, with the above exceptions noted.

14. Classroom Choirs, Grades 7 and 8, entry must consist of 75% of the music class, plus any other pupils in the class wishing to participate (at the teacher's discretion).
15. Classroom Choirs, when a class is composed of a mixture of two grades and there are also in that same school, 2 classes containing a class each of both the above grades then the portion of the mixed class of one particular grade can combine with the complete class of that same grade, on a basis of 75% of the total.

Public Domain is not applicable for anything in Musical Theatre.
24. Memory is compulsory for:

Memory is recommended for piano and instrumental classes for ages 13 and over. The adjudicator has the power to deduct marks from those using sheet music during a performance.

In piano and instrumental classes for ages 12 and under, participants will not be penalized for performing from sheet music, though in the event of a tie, those performing from memory will be deemed of the higher standard.

25. In Senior Concert Groups, all participants must announce their name and the pieces they are going to perform.
26. In classes in which any test piece is the participant's "own choice" or where a "restricted choice" is indicated, the title, composer and performance time thereof must be specified when registering. For the use of the adjudicator, a publisher's copy (not a photocopy) of such music, bearing the name of the participant and class number, must be delivered to him/her at the beginning of each performance and claimed immediately after adjudication. Failure to do so will make the participant ineligible for a mark, and therefore any award, as the Adjudicator cannot refer to the music for the adjudication. General comments can be provided but no mark.

NOTE: Each piece of music, be it a SET PIECE or OWN SELECTION, can be performed only once by each participant in all classes entered in the Festival.

Participants who select songs other than English, must also file with the copy of the music a translation of the words into English. Failure to comply with these provisions shall render the participants liable to disqualification.

29. Folk Songs , NL Songs and Pop Songs must be limited to three verses plus chorus OR a maximum of 4 minutes. If verses need to be deleted from the selection, this should be noted on the music given to the Adjudicator. This will be strictly enforced this year.

Similarly, if any of the Awards involve a Class that is split, the highest mark between the split classes will receive the award.
39. Where there are any number of classes with very few entries, the Association reserves the right to combine some or all such classes together into one or more sessions for performance in the competitive part of the festival. 43. In each competition where in the music performed by a candidate is designated as "Own Choice", each candidate will be adjudicated at the level or grade at which he or she is studying, and hence performing, at the time of the festival. This includes "Concert Group" classes.
44. In each competition wherein music by title is printed in the official festival programme, the same music, and if more than one selection is to be played, the same order as submitted by the candidate on the official festival entry form, must be employed. No changes can be made in the music itself or in the order of the performance of the music after on-line registration. This includes "Concert Groups".
45. The order of competition will not be changed to accommodate the accompanists. If the accompanist is entered in the on-line registration , we will try and accommodate.
